Bus Bandh: Public hit

Mysuru, Dec. 12 (MTY&SSV)-KSRTC bus services were hit for the second day as the indefinite stir by members of KSRTC Employees Okkuta demanding the status of State Government employees continued today.

Thousands of commuters were put into hardship as both suburban and city bus service remained suspended this morning. A few buses that operated today returned to depot after stones were pelted by miscreants on city outskirts. The employees refused to resume duty till their demands were duly met by the State Government.

As many as 525 city buses belonging to four depots were off the road after a few buses were stoned last night. Similarly, 675 buses that operated on 2,000 suburban routes also did not come out of the depots due to the ongoing strike. The buses, which plied till 4.30 pm on Friday, were withdrawn following instructions from Trade Union leaders to intensify the stir.

ESMA, no impact

Though the KSRTC officials have warned of invoking Essential Services and Maintenance Act (ESMA) on striking employees if they failed to resume duty, it did not have any impact. A majority of drivers and conductors are holding protest in public not bothering about disciplinary action. However, the only solace has been that not much problem was caused to Government employees as today being holiday on account of second Saturday.

(See BANDH on page 8)

When we went to press, KSRTC authorities had re-started bus service to Bengaluru with Police escort. Similarly, three buses are said to have been started from Bengaluru under Police protection. The Police will give protection till these buses reached their respective destinations.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The battle against COVID-19 got a boost in the last week with the announcement of new milestones in vaccine development programmes. There is a strong possibility that early next year, vaccination will be rolled out. This development will add momentum to the ongoing normalisation of economic activity. The big policy question now is whether the Government should continue to stick to just the economic initiatives already announced since the first lockdown. After all, high frequency economic indicators show clear signs of normalisation. RBI has also revised its economic forecast to announce that the ongoing quarter (October-December) will record marginal growth.

The Government should see the imminent arrival of vaccines as an opportunity to make one big effort to lift the economy out of its current hesitancy. There is a strong case for a fiscal stimulus by expanding borrowing and spending it on infrastructure. The Government's own assessment is that India's lack of competitiveness stems from infrastructure constraints. If the Government uses this opportunity to accelerate its infrastructure plans, it will feed into multiple contracts to the private sector. This will kick-start a virtuous cycle of revenue, job creation and eventually private investment. — In The Times of India

Family sharing home with crocodile for 39 years !

Hiroshima: While many prefers staying far on seeing a crocodile, one Japanese family in Kure City, Hiroshima, has been living with one for 39 years.

Nobumitsu Murabayashi bought "Caiman-san", his pet crocodile, from a pet store, after his young son begged him to. He never thought he'd become part of the family, and still be with them nearly 40 years later. Today, the domesticated crocodile measures just under 7 feet long (6.8 feet) and weighs around 45 kilograms.

But he's a gentle giant, as Nobumitsu says he would never hurt anyone. Caiman-san lives in the family home, but also goes on walks with his master and is tame enough to let young children touch and even ride him.

HEALTH CAPSULE

Exercise plays a vital role in building and maintaining strong muscles and bones. Physical activity like weightlifting can stimulate muscle building when paired with adequate protein intake. This is because exercise helps release hormones that promote the ability of your muscles to absorb amino acids. This helps them grow and reduces their breakdown.

VOICE OF THE READER

Improve bus service on Ring Road

Sir,

The bus service on Ring Road needs to be improved. Now we have two bus depots in the opposite sides of Ring Road — plying two buses from Vijayanagar Depot and two more from Mahadevapura Bus Depot with 15 minutes gap.

The additional bus service would be of great help to people who work in Industrial Areas. As Yelwal, Hunsur, K.R. Nagar, H.D. Kote, Nanjangud, T. Narasipur, Bannur, Srirangapatna, Mandya, Belagola, KRS, Industrial Estate are connected to Ring Road, KSRTC may ply buses only on the Ring Road as it will be advantageous to people travelling to Mysuru to daily. Otherwise they have to go to bus stand and then take another bus to their workplace which consumes a lot of time. Hope this suggestion will be considered.

Pressure mounts on Govt. to act on Kasturirangan Report

● Growers' delegation meets CM; MLAs demand Kerala model

● Report proposes Western Ghats as 'Ecologically Sensitive Area'

Madikeri/Bengaluru, Dec. 12 (PS&BCT)- Notwithstanding the recent formation of a Cabinet Committee to study the Kasturirangan Report and make recommendations to the Centre on its implementation, a delegation of coffee growers and members of Karnataka Growers Federation recently met Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa to raise their concerns about the Report that has proposed Western Ghats as an Ecologically Sensitive Area (ESA).

The Kasturirangan Report aims to bring about 37 percent of the Western Ghats under ESA zones. It has recommended prohibition of development activities within 60,000 sq. km of ESA spread over Karnataka, Gujarat, Goa, Tamil Nadu, Kerala and Maharashtra. The Report has recommended that 20,668 sq km spread across 11 districts in the Western Ghats cradling 1,592 villages, be declared as an ESA.

The delegation told the CM that the Report imposes restrictions on agricultural activities in sensitive areas. Farmers will not be allowed to use chemical fertilisers. Moreover, many people are not aware of the Report. There has been no attempt either to inform the people or engage them in dialogue with regard to the process, the delegation said.

Hundreds of people have their dwelling places in the deemed forest areas and all of them will be evicted, they said.

Apart from the CM, the delegation, under the leadership of Dr. H.T. Mohan Kumar, MLA Araga Jnanendra and former MLA H.M. Vishwanath also met Assembly Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri, Ministers R. Ashok and K. Gopalaiah. They also met former Chief Ministers Siddharamaiah and Jagadish Shettar and many MLAs to convey their concerns.

Declaration of the Western Ghats as ESA would cause problems to thousands of villagers living in the region in the State and they would be asked to shift to other places if the Report was implemented, they argued.

State to approach NGT

Meanwhile, the State Government is likely to approach the National Green Tribunal (NGT) to implead itself in the case on implementation of the Report.

Primary and Secondary Education Minister Suresh Kumar, who was replying to the Assembly on Thursday, said the Government is exploring options to clarify Karnataka's stand before the Tribunal.

BJP members urged the Government to adopt the Kerala model for implementation of Kasturirangan Report recommendations. They feared that the final notification could trigger violence in villages located in the Western Ghats.

Kerala model

MLA V. Sunil Kumar urged the Government to resurvey the villages identified in the Report as per the Kerala model. Araga Jnanendra said Kerala compiled a report identifying various zones in villages as soon as the Report was filed, reducing the eco-sensitive area from 13,108 sq km to around 9,000 sq km. If Karnataka follows the Kerala model, the 20,668 sq km area eco-sensitive area can be reduced to around 13,000 sq km, he added.

They urged the State to impress upon the Centre that the problems and situations of different States were different and it was not correct and proper to take a uniform decision covering all States.

"The Centre must take into account the concerns and views of all States and the people, who are the real stakeholders," the MLAs said.

Illegal mobile phone towers mushroom in city

Mysuru City Corporation sets 3-month deadline for service providers to pay fee and register

Gurudatta Hegde

Mysuru, Dec. 12 (RK&BCT)- With lakhs of regular mobile phone users in Mysuru and surrounding areas, mobile service providers have been flooded with complaints on call drops. To bridge this gap, service providers have started erecting many towers to support their signals. Unfortunately, the mobile towers came at the cost of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC).

To cater to the demand, small lanes and street corners and roof of buildings are used to install towers and most of them do not have approval from the MCC. As per guidelines, it is mandatory for telecom operators to get consent from MCC before granting permissions for the construction of these towers.

In a notification issued to mobile operators, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde stated that all those service providers that are disseminating mobile signals within the limits of MCC including Airtel, Vodafone-Idea, Jio and BSNL have to obtain permission from the MCC for each of their towers. Three months have been granted for them to approach the MCC and obtain permission, the notification said.

As per the Government order issued on May 29, 2019 and as per the guidelines issued by MCC Finance and Taxation Standing Committee and according to the decisions taken by the MCC Council, it is mandatory for mobile service providers to pay a fee to MCC and carryout business. As per the rules, the service providers have to pay a one-time fee of Rs. 50,000 for each tower.

There are more than 400 towers in Mysuru city limits and as per the fee structure, the MCC must get revenue of Rs. 2 crore. "Tower operators have three months to submit the necessary documents for permission. The MCC will undertake a survey to identify all mobile towers and only those who have paid the fee will be allowed to operate and action will be taken as per law. Permit must be taken within the stipulated timeline of three months. There is no question of regularising them," the Commissioner added.

Cow Laws & Peacock Justice!

Karnataka's BJP Government has resurrected the issue of cow protection as they are hungry for some "political fodder" and on Wednesday hurriedly passed the "Karnataka Prevention of Slaughter and Preservation of Cattle Bill 2020" in the State Assembly.

Of course, the Bill is yet to pass the Legislative Council and get the Governor's approval. But even if that happens, we must remember there is a Supreme Court judgement that says cows and bulls that are more than 15 years old and not useful can be sold by the farmers to slaughter houses, in case anyone takes this matter to Court.

That said, there already exists a 1964 Act which bans the slaughter of cows and calf of she-buffalo but allows bull, bullock, buffalo-male or female to be slaughtered if the animal is deemed above 12 years of age and unproductive. Now this Government simply added bull and bullock to that non-slaughter list, leaving only the buffalo above the age of 13 to be slaughtered.

When it comes to politics, even animals are fodder. If we really cared for cows, where are the Gau Rakshaks when cow owners leave them on roads to feed on plastic bags out of dumpsters? Where are these bovine fanatics when cows are openly transported in goods autos in standing position, which is illegal? Do they only care about cows that are being sent to the slaughter house?

We are sure, a cow would prefer to be slaughtered quickly rather than endure a painful death as plastic fills its belly or when their legs break during transportation and unable to feed, they die of starvation.

The holy cow and its progeny are beasts of burden that have been exploited for the purposes of religion and politics in this country. In a free nation with a Constitution and personal liberties, it is one's right to choose what they want to eat unless, of course, they're cannibals vying to take a bite of your arm or eyeing your pet for a feast.

Most importantly, this law is going to affect the poor farmers. A milch cow can be milked for up to 12 to 14 years, after that it is of no use to the farmer. Now the farmer is left with three choices — use it to plough land, sell it to the slaughter house or send it to Pinjrapole. If a farmer is poor, he would obviously sell it to a slaughter house which typically pays around Rs. 2,500 per cow. Now he loses that revenue.

Also beef is a source of cheap protein to many poor. In Maharashtra, construction cost went up as workers demanded more money because the cost of meat increased post beef ban. Apart from this, today stray cow is only an urban problem, but as farmers let their cows loose unable to take care of them, it could lead to rural social problems as one farmer's cattle strays into another's farm to graze.

We must also take note of the way this Bill was passed — it reeks of pettiness and lacks administrative astuteness.

First, the Bill was passed in a sneaky manner because it was not part of Wednesday's agenda as discussed in the Business Advisory Committee (BAC) headed by the Speaker. Yet, it was introduced and passed.

Second, the law gives Police powers of "search and seizure" on the basis of "reason to believe" that cattle is being sold, purchased or disposed of for the purpose of slaughter. So, if you want to harass anyone all you have to do is "entice" the Police to develop a "reason to believe" and you can have your vengeance.

This issue of just cow slaughter is only going to end up as a political game in which personal freedoms will be slaughtered and our Constitutional rights bloodied. Banning cow slaughter is going to send the practice underground and give birth to a new black market in which thugs, cops and Government Officers will thrive.

The bovine is not divine for politicians, it is just another electoral tool. Let's hope the vegetables are not next. If anyone says this law is to protect bullocks... all we can say is, that's just bollocks.

P.S.: This "re-purposing" of the Cow Slaughter Act reminds us of a disturbing incident that happened in 2017. A Rajasthan High Court Judge, Justice Mahesh Chandra Sharma on his last day as Judge gave a talk after delivering a 139-page ruling (!) in response to a petition alleging maltreatment of cows in a local animal shelter.

In this last judgement, Justice Sharma had interesting insights into the animal kingdom. First, it was about peacocks when he momentarily turned into an Ornithologist and spoke about how peacocks procreate. It seems it's quite simple. The peahen drinks the tears of the peacock. That's it. Yes, a High Court Judge said that a peafowl is born when a peahen drinks the tears of a peacock!

Then while he recommended that the cow be declared India's national animal, he also noted that cow was the only animal that inhaled and exhaled oxygen!

But the most disturbing aspect of the former Judge's statement was when he in his 139-page judgement recommended "life imprisonment" for anyone killing a cow!

He even gave a reason why he thinks life imprisonment is justified, and it was simple like his peacock theory. He recommends life imprisonment because, according to him there are "330 million Gods and Goddesses" that reside in a cow!

In any other country there would have been a call to review all the judgements pronounced by this Judge because his mind is irrational, prejudiced and compromised. And a compromised mind cannot deliver justice in a complex, multi-cultural and multi-religious society like ours.

This Judge's statements will scare anyone who seeks justice. May be, it's time to reassess how we select Judges. It's not knowledge or education that makes a good Judge but a sense of empathy, humaneness, pragmatism and knowing the difference between "letter of the law" and "spirit of the law." Else, they will deliver only peacock justice!

Mysuru to get Multi-Modal Logistics Park in 24 months

CONCOR to build Inland Container Depot for Railways at Kadakola with Rs. 100 crore

Mysuru, Dec. 12 (RK&BCT)- The much-awaited and ambitious work on Inland Container Depot for Railways at Kadakola near Nanjangud by Container Corporation of India (CONCOR) began officially this morning. This will be the third Container Yard in Karnataka by CONCOR after Whitefield in Bengaluru and Mangaluru.

The formal inauguration ceremony was held at Hotel Sandesh The Prince in Nazarbad of Mysuru instead of the actual work site as the code of conduct is in force for the forthcoming Gram Panchayat (GP) elections. After today's inauguration, the works will begin for Rs. 100 crore project. At the hotel, a trade meet and an interactive session on the proposed Multi-Modal Logistics Park was held today.

The formal inauguration was led by Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, CONCOR General Manager Anup Dayanand Sadhu, Mysuru Divisional Railway Manager Rahul Agarwal in the presence of Mysore Chamber of Commerce and Industry (MCCI) President A.S. Satish and a group of over 25 industries.

24 month project

Of the Rs. 100 crore, Rs. 20 crore has been spent on land acquisition and Rs. 55 crore will be spent on civil works. The target for completion of project is 24 months. Tenders have been floated and the actual works will begin today, the MP said.

The District Administration through Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) had acquired 55 acres of land in Survey Numbers 480-517 in 2011, 2012 and 2013 from 54 farmers. These 55 acres was allotted to CONCOR to set up the inland container depot. But farmers were demanding compensation and a permanent job for a family member at the depot.

The issue with farmers have been sorted out with the help of Mysuru DC and SP and there are no hurdles for the works to begin, the MP said. CONCOR has purchased 55 acres of land by negotiating at Rs. 35 lakh per acre.

Big boost to industries

The depot will be on the lines of one which already exists at Whitefield in Bengaluru. Once the depot becomes a reality, it will be a big boost to industries. For Customs Duty, they need not go to Ports as all formalities will be done at the depot and a separate office of Customs will be set up, the MP said.

Apart from this, two Railway lines, loading line and engine escape line, will be set up. They will be controlled by Kadakola Railway Station. This would not only give a boost to exports from the region but also reduce the lead time taken to ship the containers to the Ports.

Safer and more reliable

Mysuru has industries like Nestle, TVS, South India Paper Mills and it is an industry and IT companies hub. At present, most of the cargo meant for exports is sent to Chennai Port by road which adds to cost and time whereas the CONCOR facility at Kadakola will provide a safer and more reliable alternative to road.

Products that are exported from the region include general engineering products, coffee, electronic items and agro-based products. The depot will have good warehouse facility which will come up in an area of 1,000 sq.mts.

"We believe in total connectivity and this project will complement the Bengaluru-Mysuru 10-lane highway project, Mysuru-Madikeri new National Highway 275 from Srirangapatna, improved air connectivity with over nine flights, improved rail network with track doubling," Pratap Simha said.

The project envisages rail-siding, state-of-the-art warehousing, truck parking area besides facility for Customs clearances for export and import cargo. There is immense potential of starting almost 15 trains a month to various ports including Mangalore Port and Chennai Port immensely benefiting the Industries based in Mysuru and Nanjangud, he added.

Bus Bandh: Public affected

Makes moolah

The KSRTC bus strike came as a blessing in disguise for private bus operators and taxis who charged double the fare. People who wanted to go to Bengaluru were charged exorbitantly by private taxi operators. Maxi-cabs were jam-packed with commuters in rural areas. Employees affiliated to other Trade Unions were physically prevented by striking workers from doing duty. Appeals made by depot managers to striking drivers and conductors had no impact. Many of them had switched off their mobile phones to avoid telephone calls from their seniors.

Buses belonging to Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana and Maharashtra operated normally from Mysuru to various cities. The stranded commuters got into those buses towards their destinations. The strike hit bus service to Bengaluru, Ramanagar, Chamarajanagar, Kodagu, Tumakuru, Chitradurga, Davangere, Dharwad, Belagavi and other districts.

Security beefed up

A KSRP platoon has been stationed at suburban bus stand and city bus terminal as a precautionary measure. The busy bus bays in city wore a deserted look with no sight of commuters.

Hotel supplier found dead

CNC to hold annual Gun Carnival in Kodagu on Dec. 18

Madikeri (Kodagu), Dec. 12 (OSR)- The 10th Annual Codava National Council (CNC) Thok Namme (Gun Carnival) will be held Dec. 18 at 10.30 am at Kolakeri in Napoklu to mark "World Minorities Rights Day."

Gun is a part and parcel of Kodavas and to showcase the valour and rich folkloric cultural heritage of the community. The Thok Namme is scheduled to be held at Cauvery Estate of Appachira Rammi Nanaiah in Kolakeri.

All participants are requested to carry their guns to the ceremony. This programme is intended to showcase warrior-hood tribal traits of the community. As pet the schedule, a mass worship of guns will be performed on the banks of River Cauvery. The ritual will be led by CNC President N.U. Nachappa, followed by Thok Paat (folkloric weapon prayer).

Later, a shooting competition for men, women and children will be held followed by a public meeting. Prize distribution will be held and traditional Kodava food will be served to all participants.

Gun right, a clarification

In the wake of Kodagu Deputy Commissioner Annies Kanmani Joy issuing orders to all gun holders in Kodagu to surrender the same due to the forthcoming Gram Panchayat elections, the CNC has clarified that gun licence is different and gun exemption is different.

During elections, under the directions from the Election Commission of India, all District administrations, Collectorates and Commissionerates will issue orders to all gun licence holders to surrender their weapons by depositing it in the nearest Police Station till the completion of election process to facilitate smooth electoral exercise as well as to maintain peace and tranquillity. "This order will not and does not apply to a Kodava community member as the community is exempted from Indian Arms Act to possess firearms or guns. This was clarified in 1994 during the period of Chief Election Commissioner of India T.N. Sheshan who reformed India's electoral system.

Sheshan made it clear that the exemption certificate holders and also those who consider weapons as sacred and gun as an article of worship, this order of depositing the guns during elections will not apply, the CNC stated.

Green Buds company fraud case

Minister directs DC to take action

Bengaluru, Dec.12- Following complaints that Green Buds Agro Company has cheated scores of farmers in Mysuru region, Revenue Minister R. Ashok has directed Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Rohini Sindhuri to take necessary action in this regard.

On Friday, farmer leader from Mysuru Kurubur Shanthakumar met R. Ashok at Vidhana Soudha in Bengaluru and submitted a memorandum seeking justice to farmers who were cheated by Green Buds Agro company in Mysuru. Claiming that the company had cheated more than 2 lakh investors to the tune of crores of rupees, Shanthakumar explained the Minister about the plight of the cheated farmers.

He noted that the Government in 2016, following a CID probe into the matter, had ordered the then Assistant Commissioner of Mysuru to auction the properties of the company and return the money thus collected to the investors. Although the AC collected the necessary documents from the cheated farmers and investors, the authorities, citing shortage of staff and money, have not submitted the documents to the Court, which action has caused a lot of concern among the farmers, with over 20 of them having committed suicide over the years out of frustration, Shanthakumar maintained.

After hearing Shanthakumar and receiving the memorandum, Ashok called Mysuru DC over phone and instructed her to take necessary action in this regard.

Mysuru, Dec. 12- Mysuru is among few cities in the country that will be the first to operationalise Safaimitra Suraksha Helpline Number 14420, the Helpline which will address the concerns of sewage cleaners.

"Kota (South), Port Blair, Bhubaneswar, Moga, Gurugram and Ranchi are other cities which will start to operationalise the Helpline," said the Union Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs.

Earlier, Union Housing and Urban Affairs have launched Safaimitra Suraksha Challenge on this issue. The Challenge aims to ensure that no life of any sewer or septic tank cleaner is ever lost again owing to the issue of hazardous cleaning.

The Challenge focussed on creating citizen awareness on this critical issue. Along with this, a dedicated Helpline number has been set up to register complaints.

The Ministry will make an on-ground assessment of participating cities in the Challenge in May 2021 by an independent agency and results of the same will be declared on Aug. 15, 2021. Cities will be awarded in three sub-categories — with a population of more than 10 lakhs, 3 -10 lakhs and up to 3 lakhs, with a total prize money of Rs. 52 crore to be given to winning cities across all categories.

WORD OF THE DAY

Rescind

Pronunciation: rih-SIND.
Meaning: To take away : remove; take back, cancel; to abrogate (a contract) and restore the parties to the positions they would have occupied had there been no contract; to make void by action of the enacting authority or a superior authority : repeal.
Origin: Rescind and the lesser-known words exscind and prescind all come from the Latin verb scindere, which means "to cut" or "to split." Rescind was adapted from its Latin predecessor rescindere in the 16th century, and prescind (from praescindere) and exscind (from exscindere) followed in the next century. Exscind means "to cut off" or "to excise," and prescind means "to withdraw one's attention," but of the three borrowings, only rescind established itself as a common English term. Today, rescind is most often heard in contexts having to do with someone rescinding a contract or an offer, or with a legislative body rescinding a law.
Example: "As part of that Phase I work, the board rescinded an earlier agreement to buy the old bus station at 221 W. Fourth Ave. That $109,000 will be used instead to help pay for the infrastructure work." — Byron Tate

THE ODD WORD

Ramate

Branched.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

A young man's fancy

Meaning: Alludestolightthoughtsofromanticlove.
Origin: The phrase was coined by Alfred Lord Tennyson, in his poem Locksely Hall, 1842:
In the spring a fuller crimson comes upon the robin's breast
In the spring the wanton lapwing gets himself another crest
In the spring a livelier iris changes on the burnished dove
In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love.
The poem concludes with what is one of the best known lines in English poetry. However, it wasn't the whimsical accolade to young love as might be imagined. The protagonist muses on unrequitted love in a somewhat bitter mood. Tennyson described the poem as showing "young life, its good side, its deficiencies, and its yearnings". By the word 'fancy' Tennyson meant 'imagination; a mental image'. To take a fancy to is to be attracted to and imagine (fancy) oneself together with the object of one's affection. This expression was well known from the 16th century onward. It is first found in the 1541 Acts of Parliament of Henry VIII: In case it fortune... the king... should take a fancie to anie woman.

QUOTE BOX

Liston Colaco with a free kick for Hyderabad FC.

Margao, Dec. 12- Hyderabad FC maintained their unbeaten run in Hero ISL 2020-21 after holding ATK Mohun Bagan (ATKMB) to a 1-1 draw at the Fatorda Stadium here yesterday. Manvir Singh opened the scoring for the Mariners before Hyderabad equalised from the spot in a game that saw both sides create many goal-scoring chances.

ATKMB showed their attacking intent early in the game after a beautiful through ball from Edu Garcia was played into the box by Prabir Das in the seventh minute. ATKMB continued their attacking forays in the second half, quickly creating a couple of chances. Their intent eventually paid off in 54th minute. Following a poor goal kick, Manvir collected the ball in the midfield and burst into attacking third before poking the ball into the net to score his second goal of the season.

PGA Tour names Medinah to host 2026 Presidents Cup matches

Medinah, Dec. 12- Medinah Country Club, which has hosted five major championships and the 2012 Ryder Cup, was named host for the 2026 Presidents Cup yesterday by the US PGA Tour.

The famed course outside of Chicago will become the fifth US course to stage the biennial showdown of US and non-European Internationals squads. The Americans own an 11-1-1 record in the event, having won for the eighth consecutive time last December at Royal Melbourne in Australia when a Tiger Woods-led US team beat the Internationals 16-14.

Medinah has hosted three US Opens and two PGA Championships as well as the memorable Europe comeback "Miracle at Medinah" victory over the Americans to win the Ryder Cup in 2012. "As the significance of the Presidents Cup continues to grow, we look forward to showcasing the 2026 event from one of the world's great sporting and cosmopolitan cities in Chicago and a storied venue in Medinah," US PGA Tour commissioner Jay Monahan said.

TPC Harding Park in San Francisco had been originally set to host the event but the city-owned course reportedly will become the home of a new PGA event instead.

Medinah's most recent PGA event was the 2019 BMW Championship won by Justin Thomas.

The 2022 Presidents Cup is set to be staged at Quail Hollow in Charlotte, North Carolina and the 2024 event is slated for Canada's Royal Montreal. Exact dates for the 2026 Presidents Cup will be announced later.
